TO OUR VISITORS & GUESTS: We welcome you to worship today, whether you are an Orthodox Christian or this is your first visit to an Orthodox Church, we are so pleased to have you with us! Although Holy Communion and other Sacraments are offered only to baptized and chrismated (confirmed) Orthodox Christians in good standing with the church, all are invited to receive the Antidoron (blessed bread) from the priest at the conclusion of the Divine Liturgy. The Antidoron is not sacramental, but is reminiscent of the agape feast that followed worship in the ancient Christian Church. After the Divine Liturgy this morning, please join us in the Church hall for fellowship and refreshments. Please sign our visitor's book at the back of the church before you leave today, and leave an email address if you are interested in news and announcements from St. Nicholas.

Today's hymns: please see page 2

EPISTLE: 1 Corinthians 4: 9-16 (p. 79)

GOSPEL: Matthew 17: 14-23 (pp. 79-80)

August 13, 2017 – 10th Sunday of Matthew

Leave-taking of the Feast of the Transfiguration. St. Maximos the Confessor

Tone 1

Orthros Gospel 10

SPECIAL HYMNS OF THE DAY (SMALL ENTRANCE):

First to be chanted at the Small Entrance is the hymn for today's feast (Tone 7):

Μετεμορφώθης ἐν τῷ ὄρει Χριστέ ὁ Θεός, δείξας τοῖς Μαθηταῖς σου τὴν δόξαν σου, καθὼς ἠδύναντο, Λάμπσον καὶ ἡμῖν τοῖς ἀμαρτωλοῖς, τό φῶς σου τό αἶδιον, πρεσβείαις τῆς Θεοτόκου, φωτοδότα δόξα σοι.

You were transfigured on the Mount, Christ God, revealing Your glory to Your disciples, insofar as they could comprehend. Illuminate us sinners also with Your everlasting light, through the intercessions of the Theotokos. Giver of light, glory to You.

At the procession with the Gospel the special Eisodikon (Entrance Hymn) in Tone 2 is chanted:

Ὅτι παρὰ σοὶ πηγὴ ζωῆς, Κύριε, ἐν τῷ φωτὶ σου ὁψόμεθα φῶς. Σῶσον ἡμᾶς Υἱὲ Θεοῦ, ὁ ὁ ἀναστὰς ἐκ νεκρῶν, ψάλλοντάς σοι, Ἀλληλουῖα.

For with You is the fountain of life; O Lord, in Your light we shall see light. Save us, O Son of God, who rose from the dead, we sing to You Alleluia.

As the Clergy reenter the Sanctuary, the Resurrection hymn is chanted (Tone 1, p. 170). Then, the Transfiguration hymn is repeated, followed by the hymn for St. Nicholas, our patron saint:

Κανόνα πίστεως καὶ εἰκόνα πραότητος, ἐγκρατείας Διδάσκαλον, ἀνέδειξέ σε τῇ ποιμνῇ σου, ἡ τῶν πραγμάτων ἀλήθεια· διὰ τοῦτο ἐκτίσω τῇ ταπεινώσει τὰ ὑψηλά, τῇ πτωχείᾳ τὰ πλούσια, Πάτερ Ἱεράρχα Νικόλαε· πρέσβευε Χριστῷ τῷ Θεῷ, σωθῆναι τὰς ψυχὰς ἡμῶν.

The truth of things have revealed you to your flock as a rule of faith, an icon of meekness, and a teacher of temperance; for this cause you have achieved the heights by humility, riches by poverty. O Father and Hierarch Nicholas, intercede with Christ God that our souls be saved.

After this, we hear the Kontakion for the Transfiguration for the last time this year:

Επί τοῦ ὄρους μετεμορφώθης, καί ὡς ἐχώρουν οἱ Μαθηταὶ σου τὴν δόξαν σου, Χριστέ ὁ Θεός θεάσαντο, ἵνα ὅταν σε ἴδωσι σταυρούμενον, τό μέν πάθος νοήσωσιν ἐκούσιον, τῷ δέ κόσμῳ κηρύξωσιν, ὅτι σύ ὑπάρχεις ἀληθῶς, τοῦ Πατρὸς τό ἀπαύγασμα.

You were transfigured upon the mount, O Christ our God, and Your disciples, in so far as they could bear, beheld Your glory. Thus, when they see You crucified, they may understand Your voluntary passion, and proclaim to the world that You are truly the effulgence of the Father.

TODAY'S SCRIPTURE READINGS:

EPISTLE: 1 Corinthians 4: 9-16 (p. 79)

GOSPEL: Matthew 17: 14-23 (pp. 79-80)

ECCLESIASTICAL MUSIC MINISTRY AT THE CATHEDRAL

You are cordially invited! Come and learn Byzantine chant from a world-class instructor, or join our choir and learn to sing the unique and beautiful arrangements composed by our founding choir director!

Our Cathedral is graced by two music ministries grounded in tradition that we hope you will consider participating in:

The first is rooted at the Analogion (the Chanter Bookstand). Our Analogion Ministry, blessed by the volunteer service of Dr. Nick Giannoukakis, invites and welcomes anyone with some musical ability, especially the younger generation, to join and learn the beautiful and 1200 year-old tradition of Byzantine hymnology and chant. Those who faithfully adhere to the ministry will not only have an opportunity to grow musically, but more importantly, will solidify their understanding of Greek, gain an appreciation for the structure of the services, and a better insight into our Orthodox faith and its theology through a comprehension of the hymns. With the exception of the summer months (June-August), the Ministry will focus on the Sunday Orthros and the occasional Vespers, in addition to the evening services of Lent and Holy Week. Between June and early September, the Ministry will also focus on the Holy and Divine Liturgy.

Dr. Giannoukakis, who was distinguished and tonsured as Protopsaltis by Metropolitan Maximos in 1998, and noted to be among the "who is who" of Byzantine Chanters in a historical compendium published in Greece in 1994, is also the only chanter in our Metropolis to hold a certificate and diploma in Byzantine Music from a Greek Music Conservatory. Dr. Giannoukakis, personally-trained by renowned and respected Greek chanters (Constantin Lagouros, Georgios Syrkas, Emmanuel Hatzimarkos), offers music to the highest possible standards of the Great Church of Christ (the Ecumenical Patriarchate) and has successfully trained young and old individuals for more than 25 years. To learn more, and to consider participating, contact Dr. Giannoukakis at ngni@andrew.cmu.edu or at ngianni@pitt.edu. All educational materials are complimentary.

The second is rooted in the rich polyphonic innovations of the late Rudolph Agraphtotis who in the early 1900s, first composed the lyrical Liturgy conducted in our church to this day. Some of the choir members are among those who came together to constitute the first choir directed by Mr. Agraphtotis. Today, the choir is in the very capable hands of Mr. Steve Andrews who directs it as another of our Cathedral's volunteers. The choir can be heard during the Divine Liturgy for most of the year's Sunday services as well as at the services for Holy Thursday, Friday, and Saturday.

The Choir invites and welcomes anyone with some musical ability, especially the younger generation, to join. To learn more, and to consider participating, contact Mr. Steve Andrews at beyondfromwithin@comcast.net. Why not join both ministries? As it is written: "He who delights in the Lord, and walks in the Light will not stumble" (From the Doxastikon of the Orthros of the 5th Sunday of Lent).

Your Blessings Fathers and my Brothers and Sisters in Christ:

We are reaching out to you to contribute in any way that your love allows to our fund-raising efforts to build a new Monastery for you and for your children. We are living in a time where we are witnessing an increase in Christian suffering and persecution throughout the world. From the Orthodox Church's early history, monastics have come to the aid of the Church in times of persecution.

We call upon you to help create a spiritual haven in our region as many Orthodox have done so in other parts of the country; a place for you and your families to come in times of personal pain and suffering; a place to share our faith, the love of our Christ, and fellowship.

What does it mean to make an offering to build a monastery?

You will become a builder of a monastery before Christ.....

Throughout the centuries, there were builders of monasteries who because of their great faith in God and love of Orthodoxy, created treasures for themselves and their family members in the Kingdom of Heaven.

"...lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven where thieves do not break in and steal. For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also."
Matthew 6:18

You will benefit the souls of your departed loved ones.....

Contemporary Church Fathers tell us how much help the departed seek!since they see that the help of the living greatly assists them to find rest, they yearn, seek, and long for someone to commemorate them.

You will benefit yourself, relatives, and friends through the ceaseless, daily prayers of the Monastery.....

- For physical and spiritual well-being to endure personal trials and afflictions.
- For your work that it progresses in a spirit of harmony and godliness
- For those nearing the end of their life - that they find salvation and counseling through the sacrament of the church, confession.

You will benefit those who come after you.....

- Women dedicating themselves to Christ and a life of prayer will continue the precedence of hospitality and missionizing to pilgrims.
- People seeking refuge from a world that has created spiritual illness and imbalance in their daily lives.
- Young adults, pressured to undertake a path that can lead to physical and spiritual damage. They will find encouragement to counteract the problems they face and see modeled an alternative Christian lifestyle which is quickly disappearing in our present-day society.

As long as the Nativity of the Theotokos Monastery exists, with the last breath of the last monastic, you will be commemorated – both those who are living and those who have fallen asleep.

Monasteries will always remain eternal as the Orthodox Church is eternal.

May our Most Holy Theotokos intercede for you before Her Son our Lord God and Savior Jesus Christ and may She pour upon you all Her love and protection.

My love in Christ to you and to your families, Gerontissa Theophano and my Sisterhood
